Community Living Association,
Kyabra Community Association,
and Micah Projects have teamed up to provide outreach and support for young people aged 12-18 who are in care of Child Safety and are self-placing.

Community Living Association is the lead agency supporting young people to achieve safety and stability in their housing and relationships with family, friends, culture and community.

Kyabra supports young people with access to emergency overnight accommodation.

Micah Projects provides after hours outreach support to young people in the community who are experiencing an immediate crisis.

3036 4444 or youthemergency@micahprojects.org.au

Together with young people we aim to address crisis by connecting with resources and people to create safety and stability as quickly as possible.
